Coalition of Essential Schools Ten Common Principles

- 1. The school should focus on helping adolescents learn to use their minds well.
- 2. The school's goals should be simple: that each student master a limited number of essential skills and areas of knowledge. The aphorism "Less is More" should dominate...
- The school's goals should apply to all students...
  Teaching and learning should be personalized... no teacher should have direct responsibility for more than 80 students
- 5. The governing practical metaphor of the school should be student as worker. ... a prominent pedagogy will be coaching...
- 6. The diploma should be awarded upon a successful final demonstration of mastery for graduation an "Exhibition by the student of his or her grasp of the central skills and knowledge of the school's program..."
- 7. The tone of the school should stress unanxious expectation, trust and decency...parents should be treated as essential collaborators
- 8. The principal and teachers should perceive themselves as generalists first and specialists second...
- 9. Ultimate administrative and budget targets: 1:80 teachers: student loads, substantial time for collective planning by teachers, competitive salary for staff and a per pupil cost not to exceed that at traditional schools by more than 10 percent...
- 10. The school should demonstrate non-discriminatory and inclusive policies, practices, and pedagogies. It should model democratic practices that involve all who are directly affected by the school. The school should honor diversity and build on the strength of its communities, deliberately and explicitly challenging all forms of inequity.
